DISSEMINATION NUMBERED OUT

1. Guerrilla activity which continues nightly in the vicinity of Taegu airstrip is believed to be harassing action for the psychological effect on air base personnel. No attack has been made on the air base.
2. Since 1945 USSR technicians have reconstructed the interior of Tongyong cave, which is a 15 minute-walk from Kulang railway station (approximately 12 miles by rail west of Pyongyang). The cave is reported to extend from Kujang to Rasin. It was built to provide storage space and is used as a military installation.
3. Communist efforts in the Pusan area which have been dormant during the past few months have been reorganized and propaganda efforts by hand bills and other methods are now reported. YONG Chu-muk and five helpers were arrested while reorganizing a secret organization. YONG Chu-muk is the chief Communist in the area, and was responsible for the Communist indoctrination of the local branch of the South Korean Labor Party.
4. Efforts of former political prisoners released from Seoul prisons to obtain information after infiltrating Pusan area have been successful. Prisoners have relayed information on South Korean troops and supply movements of U.S. materiel.
5. Small units of guerrillas were active in Kyongsang Namdo Province in the Pusan area between 9 and 14 July.
